

2nd & 3rd May 2024
UCD Quinn School of Business, Q117

MISFIRES ERC RESEARCH SHOWCASE & EXHIBITION

Thursday

10.00 Registration

10.15 Prof Anthony Brabazon, Principal, UCD College of Business & Prof Kate Robson Brown, UCD VPRII: Fruits of MISFIRES - Opening

10.30 Prof Susi Geiger (MISFIRES ERC PI): Introduction to the ERC Project: what can activist-led market innovation tell us about biomedical markets

11.00 Dr Ilaria Galasso: Genetic research & the collective good

11.30 BREAK (Contemplative Space)

12.00 Dr Theo Bourgeron: Assetizing & de-assetizing pharmaceutical patents

12.30 Fernandos Ongolly: Health Activism & Access to Medicines at the Last Mile: A Comparative Analysis Between High- & Low Income Settings

13.00 Dr Olya Loza: Chronic illness & its economies

13.30 Prof Susi Geiger: In conclusion: Have we reached Peak Pharma yet?

13.45 Lunch & Exhibition Launch: Living with Long Covid; living with ME/CFS (Contemplative Space)

This programme is subject to change

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

This project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research & innovation programme (grant agreement No 771217)

Programme

MISFIRES & TARGETING THERAPIES CONFERENCE

Thursday continued

15.00 Targeting Therapies Welcome – Prof Martyn Pickersgill

15.15 Session 1:

Prof Paul Martin: Why is the pharmaceutical industry investing in targeted therapies and precision medicine?

Dr Tineke Kleinhout-Vliek: Gene therapy narratives and the making of pharmaceutical futures

16.15 BREAK(Contemplative Space)

16.30 Session 2:

Hadewych Honné: Cost-effectiveness as a matter of concern: Investigating treatment optimisation studies as part of a move towards personalised medicine

Dr Isabel Briz Hernandez: The Ethical Work of Lab Technicians Manufacturing Targeted Therapies

17.30 Group photo at the lake outside UCD Quinn

18.00 UCD Club Restaurant dinner

Friday

9.30 Session 3:

Dr Clara Fabian-Therond: The cultural, ethical, and social dimensions of practices of personalised medicine

Dr Paula Muhr: Splitting FND: Differences in Targeted Therapies for Functional Movement Disorders and Functional Seizures

Dr Lisa Lehner: Uncaring Cures: A Critical Phenomenology of Targeted Therapies for Hepatitis C in the Context of Addiction

Programme

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

This project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research & innovation programme (grant agreement No 771217)

European Research Council

Excellence in European Research

MISFIRES & TARGETING THERAPIES CONFERENCE

Friday continued

11.00 BREAK (Contemplative Space)

11.30 Session 4:

Dr Mina Hosseini: AI, Targeted Therapies and the Future of EU Pharmaceutical Law and Policy

Dr Mathias Møllebæk: Targeting with digital biomarkers and digital therapeutics: Epistemic and regulatory shifts

Ina Devos and Daan Kenis: Data labor as a lens for addressing health inequalities in precision medicine research participation

13.00 LUNCH, MISFIRES game (Contemplative Space)

14.00 Session 5:

Mirza Alas Portillo: The role of old antibiotics in challenging the narrative of the empty antimicrobial pipeline?

Dr Ting Ting Shum: Is it all targeted when in context? Funding 'free' tuberculosis treatment in contemporary Shanghai, China

15.00 BREAK (Contemplative Space)

15.30 Session 6:

Dr Carolina Meyes: Off-target effects and the cascade of risk

Dr Alberto Aparicio: They want to live forever: private investors and the making of a life-extension revolution in biomedicine

16.30 Closing Discussion

Programme

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

This project has received funding from the European Research Council (ERC) under the European Union's Horizon 2020 research & innovation programme (grant agreement No 771217)

